A Message from Principal Cecchini

Hello everyone!

It has been very busy here at AACMS, as the students just finished their quarter one classes, and there is much preparation being done for upcoming events. Report cards came home today, so check with your student. As I reviewed the report cards, I've seen many A's and B's, and have not received many referrals for inappropriate behavior. The one issue that we are having is cyberbullying, which will not be tolerated. Please see our policy on the next page.

This is a reminder that Parent-Teacher conferences are this Monday, 11/20 from 4:00pm–8:00pm, and Tuesday, 11/21 from 12:00pm–3:00pm. Both Monday and Tuesday are half days—students will be dismissed at 11:30am. Some teachers are asking parents to sign up for a particular time, while others are meeting parents in the cafeteria when it is most convenient for you to attend. Please also remember that December 20th is not a school day.

Last night our current students, alumni, and faculty performed in our first “Open Mic” of the year with a total of 22 performances. It was announced at “Open Mic” that our musical will take place in April. Auditions will be held during the first week of December. The kids are excited and were very disappointed that we didn't tell them which play they will be performing. Stay tuned . . . I would like to wish all of you a happy and safe Thanksgiving break. We will return on Tuesday, November 28th, and the excitement begins with eight—yes, that is 8!—events happening by December 15th. This does not include our exciting, once-in-a-lifetime performance and experiences on December 20th when our 8th grade students will be heading to NYC. Work Hard, Play Hard!

A Note on Cyberbullying

Cyberbullying among students is becoming a large issue at AACMS. People--both students and adults--often write things that are not nice toward others, but threats will not be accepted. If it is found that someone is being threatened and it is brought into school, then suspensions may occur. Depending on the circumstances, this may also be a police matter, and I recommend you contact the police if you feel that it is warranted. If you have any further questions on how to handle this type of behavior, please contact me.
