The Board shall adopt an official Student Code of Conduct to govern student discipline, and students shall not be subject to disciplinary action because of race, gender, color, religion, sexual orientation, national origin or handicap/disability.

Each student must adhere to Board policies and the Student Code of Conduct governing student discipline.

In the case of a student with disabilities, the Executive Director shall take all necessary steps to comply with federal and state laws regarding students with disabilities.

2. The student is a member of an extracurricular program and has been notified that particular off-campus conduct could result in exclusion from such activities.
3. Student expression or conduct materially and substantially disrupts the operations of the school, or the administration reasonably anticipates that the expression or conduct is likely to materially and substantially disrupt the operations of the school.
